

0401 聽力題&答案

中文機經：中世紀早期歷史遺跡 Yeaving vs 古羅馬時期歷史遺跡 Bradley Hill。前者為木質茅草頂，不結實，所以留存下來的很少，瓷器色澤與土相近，不容易被發現。後者的建築多為混凝土，屋頂為瓦，很結實故留存下來的多，瓷器閃閃發光因此很容易被發現。

1. What is the purpose of the lecture?

To demonstrate that archaeological evidence from ancient settlements can easily be misinterpreted.

2. What two features of buildings from the Early Ages does the professor mention?

Click on 2 answers.

Supporting posts made of wood

Thatched roofs

3. Why is pottery from the Early Middle Ages difficult for archaeologists to find?

Because its colors blend in with the earth

4. What does the professor imply about the remains found at Bradley Hill, compared to those found at Yeaving?

The remains found at Bradley Hill provide more concrete evidence of the population size.

5. What is the professor's opinion about the population of Western Europe during the Early Middle Ages?

The population may have declined, but not as much as is generally believed.

6. What does the professor imply about population on-distribution maps?

They are not always accurate.